(7) "tree" includes palms, bamboos, skumps, brush-wood and canes.

CHAPTER II OF RESERVED FORESTS

3. Power to reserve forests.- The State Government may constitute any forest-land or waste-land which is the property of Government, or over which the Government has proprietary rights, or to the whole or any part of the forest- produce of which the Government is entitled, a reserved forest in the manner hereinafter provided.

4. Notification by States Government -- (1) Whenever it has been decided to constitute any land a reserved forest, the State Government shall issue a notification in the Official Gazette--

- (a) declaring that it has been decided to constitute such land a reserved forest;
- (b) specifying, as nearly as possible, the situation and limits of such land; and
- (c) appointing an officer (hereinafter called "the Forest Settlement officer") to inquire into and determine the existence, nature and extent of any rights alleged to exist in favour of any person in or over any land comprised within such limits or in or over any forest-produce, and to deal with the same as provided in this Chapter.

Explanation- For the purpose of clause (b), it shall be sufficient to describe the limits of the forest by roads, rivers, ridges or other well known or readily intelligible boundaries.

(2) The officer appointed under clause (c) of sub-section (i) shall ordinarily be a person not holding any forest-office except that of Forest Settlement officer.

(3) Nothing in this section shall prevent the State Government from, appointing any number of officers not exceeding three, not more than one of whom shall be a person holding any forest-office except as aforesaid, to perform the duties of a Forest Settlement-officer under this Act.

5. Bar of accrual of forest rights- After the issue of a notification under section 4 no right shall be acquired in or over the land comprised in such notification, except by succession or under a grant or contract in writing made or entered into by or on behalf of the Government or some person in whom such right was vested when the notification was issued; and no fresh clearings for cultivation or for other purpose shall be made in such land except in accordance with such rules as may be made by the State Government in this behalf –

6. Proclamation by Forest Settlement officer.- When a notification has been issued under section 4, the Forest Settlement-officer shall publish in the local vernacular in every town and village in the neighbourhood of the land comprised therein, a proclamation-

- (a) specifying, as nearly as possible, the situation and limits of the proposed forest;
- (b) explaining the consequences which, as hereinafter provided will ensue on the reservation of such forest; and
- (c) fixing a period of not less than three months from the date of such proclamation, and requiring every person claiming any right mentioned in section 4 or section 5 within such period either to present to the Forest Settlement-officer a written notice specifying or to appear before him and state, the nature of such right and the amount and particulars of the compensation (if any) claimed in respect thereof.

7. Inquiry by Forest Settlement officer.- The Forest Settlement-officer shall take down in writing all statements made under section 6, and shall at some convenient place inquire into all claims duly preferred under that section, and the existence of any rights mentioned in section 4 or section 5 and not claimed under section 6 so far as the same may be ascertainable from the records of Government and the evidence of any persons likely to be acquainted with the same.

Notes.- Where a notification under Section 4 declaring the land as reserved forest is issued and a claim under Section 6 is preferred then the Forest Settlement Officer is bound to enquire into all the claims and these claims cannot be rejected simply on the ground that the same were not stamped : In re U.P. Legal Aid and Advice Board, AIR 1991 All 281.

8. Powers of Forest Settlement officers.- For the purpose of such inquiry, the Forest Settlement officer may exercise the following powers, that is to say,

- (a) power to enter, by himself or any officer authorised by him for the purpose, upon any land, and to survey, demarcate and make a map of the same; and
- (b) the powers of a Civil Court in the trial of suits.

9. Extinction of rights.- Rights in respect of which no claim has been preferred under section 6, and of the existence of which no knowledge has been acquired by inquiry under section 7, shall be extinguished, unless before the notification under section 20 is published, the person claiming them satisfies the Forest Settlement-officer that he had sufficient cause for not preferring such claim within the period fixed under section 6.

10. Treatment of claims relating to practice of shifting cultivations.- (1) In the case of a claim relating to the practice of shifting cultivation, the Forest Settlement-officer shall record a statement setting forth the particulars of the claim and of any local rule or order under which the practice is allowed or regulated, and submit the statement to the State Government, together with his opinion as to whether the practice should be permitted or prohibited wholly or in part.

(2) On receipt of the statement and opinion, the State Government may make an order permitting or prohibiting the practice wholly or in part.

(3) If such practice is permitted wholly or in part, the Forest Settlement-officer may arrange for its exercise

- (a) by altering the limits of the land under settlement so as to exclude land of sufficient extent, of a suitable kind, and in a locality reasonably convenient for the purposes of the claimants or
- (b) by causing certain portions of the land under settlement to be separately demarcated and giving permission to the claimants to practice shifting cultivation therein under such conditions as he may prescribe.

(4) All arrangements made under sub-section (3) shall be subject to the previous sanction of the State Government.

(5) The practice of shifting cultivation shall in all cases be deemed a privilege subject to control, restriction and abolition by the State Government.

11. Power to acquire land over which right is claimed.- (1) In the case of a claim to a right in or over any land, other than a right of way or right of pasture, or a right to forest-produce or a watercourse, the Forest Settlement-officer shall pass an order admitting or rejecting the same in whole or in part.

- (2) If such claim is admitted in whole or in part, the Forest Settlement-officer shall either-
 - (i) exclude such land from the limits of the proposed forest; or
 - (ii) come to an agreement with the owner thereof for the surrender of his rights; or
 - (iii) proceed to acquire such land in the manner provided by the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (I of 1894).
- (3) For the purpose of so acquiring such land-

- (a) the Forest Settlement officer shall be deemed to be a Collector proceeding under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (1 of 1894).
- (b) the claimant shall be deemed to be a person interested and appearing before him in pursuance of a notice given under section 9 of that Act;
- (c) the provisions of the preceding sections of that Act shall be deemed to have been complied with; and
- (d) the Collector, with the consent of the claimant, or the Court, with the consent of both parties, may award compensation in land, or partly in land and partly in money.

12. Order on claims to rights of pasture or to forest-produce.- In the case of a claim to rights of pasture or to forest-produce, the Forest Settlement-officer shall pass an order admitting or rejecting the same in whole or in part.

13. Record to be made by Forest Settlement-officer.- The Forest- Settlement-officer, when passing any order under section 12, shall record, so far as may be practicable, -

- (a) the name, father's name, caste, residence and occupation of the person claiming the right; and
- (c) the designation, position and area of all fields or groups of fields (if any), and the designation and position of all buildings (if any) in respect of which the exercise of such rights is claimed.

14. Record where he admits claim.- If the Forest Settlement-officer admits in whole or in part any claim under section 12, he shall also record the extent to Which the claim is not admitted, specifying the number and description of the cattle which the claimant is from time to time entitled to graze in the forest, the season during which such pasture is permitted, the quantity of timber and other forest produce which he is from time to time authorised to take or receive, and such other particulars as the case may require. He shall also record whether the timber or other forest produce obtained by the exercise of the rights claimed may be sold or bartered.

15. Exercise of rights admitted.- (1) After making such record the Forest Settlement-officer shall, to the best of his ability, having the regard to the maintenance of the reserved forest in respect of which the claim is made, pass such orders as will ensure the continued exercise of the rights so admitted.

- (2) For this purpose the Forest Settlement-officer may-
 - (a) set out some other forest tract of sufficient extent, and in a locality reasonably convenient, for the purposes of such claimants,
 - (b) so alter the limits of the proposed forest produce as to exclude forest land of sufficient extent, and in a locality reasonably convenient, for the purposes of the claimants; or
 - (c) record an order, continuing to such claimants a right of pasture or to forest produce, as the case may be, to the extent so admitted, at such seasons, within such portions of the proposed forest, and under such rules, as may be made in this behalf by the state government

16. Commutation of Rights. In case the Forest settlement-officer finds it impossible having due regard to the maintenance of the reserved forest, to make such settlement under section 15 as shall ensure the continued exercise of the said rights to the extent so admitted he shall, subject to such rules as the State Government may make in this behalf, commute such rights, by the payment to such persons of a sum of money in lieu thereof, or by the grant of land, or in such other manner as he thinks fit.

17. Appeal from order passed under section 11, section 12, section 15 or section 16.- Any person who has made a claim under this Act, or any Forest-officer or other person generally or specially empowered by the State Government in this behalf, may, within three months from the date of the order passed on such claim by the Forest Settlement-officer under section 11, section 12, section 15 or section 16, present an appeal from such order to such officer of the Revenue Department, of rank not lower than that of a Collector, as the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint to hear appeals from such order:

Provided that the State Government may establish a Court (hereinafter called the Forest Court) composed of three persons to be appointed by the State Government, and when the Forest Court has been so established, all such appeals shall be presented to it.

18. Appeal under section 17.-

(1) Every appeal under section 17 shall be made by petition in writing, and may be delivered to the Forest Settlement-officer, who shall forward it without delay to the authority competent to hear the same.

(2) If the appeal be to an officer appointed under section 17, it shall be heard in the manner prescribed for the time being for the hearing of appeals in matters relating to land-revenue.

(3) If the appeal be to the Forest Court the Court shall fix a day and a convenient place in the neighbourhood of the proposed forest for hearing the appeal, and shall give notice thereof to the parties, and shall hear such appeal accordingly.

(4) The order passed on the appeal by such officer or Court or by the majority of the members of such Court as the case may be, shall, subject only to revision by the State Government, be final.

19. Pleaders. - The State Government, or any person who has made a claim under this Act may appoint any person to appear, plead and act on its or his behalf before the Forest Settlement-officer, or the appellate officer or Court, in the course of any inquiry or appeal under this Act.

20. Notification declaring forest reserved.- When the following events have occurred, namely:-

- (a) the period fixed under section 6 for preferring claims has elapsed and all claims if any made under that section or section 9 have been disposed of by the Forest Settlement-officer;
- (b) if any such claims have been made, the period limited by section 17 for appealing from the orders passed on such claims has elapsed, and all appeals (if any) passed on such claims has elapsed, and all appeals (if any) presented within such period have been disposed of by the appellate officer or Court; and
- (c) all lands (if any) to be included in the proposed forest, which the Forest Settlement-officer has, under section 11, elected to acquire under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (I of 1894), have become vested in the Government under section 16 of that Act, the State Government shall publish a notification in the Official Gazette, specifying definitely, according to boundary-marks erected or otherwise, the limits of the forest which is to be reserved, and declaring the same to be reserved from a date fixed by, the notification.

(2) From the date so fixed such forest shall be deemed to be a reserved forest.

21. Publication of translation of such notification in neighbourhood of forest.- The Forest-officer shall, before the date fixed by such notification, cause a translation thereof into the local vernacular to be published in every town and village in the neighbourhood of the forest.

22. Power to revise arrangement made under section 15 or section 18.- The State Government may, within five years from the publication of any notification under section 20, revise any arrangement made under section 15 or section 18, and may for this purpose rescind or modify any order made under section 15 or section 18, and direct that any one of the proceedings specified in section 15 be taken in lieu of any other of such proceedings, or that the rights admitted under section 12 be commuted under section 16.

23. No right acquired over reserved forest, except as here provided.- No right of any description shall be acquired in or over a reserved forest except by succession or under a grant or contract in writing made by or on behalf of the Government or some person in whom such right was vested when the notification under section 20 was issued.

24. Rights not to be alienated without sanction.- (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 23, no right continued under clause (c) of sub-section (2) of section 15 shall be alienated by way of grant, sale, lease mortgage or otherwise, without the sanction of the State Government:

Provided that when any such right is appendant to any land or house, it may be sold or otherwise alienated with such land or house.

(2) No timber or other forest-produce obtained in exercise of any such right shall be sold or bartered except to such extent as may have been admitted in the order recorded under section 14.

25. Power to stop ways and water courses in reserved forests.- The Forest officer may, with the previous sanction of the State Government or of any officer duly authorised by it in this behalf, stop any public or private way or water course in a reserved forest, provided that a substitute for the way or water-course so stopped, which the State Government deems to be reasonably convenient, already exists, or has been provided or constructed by the Forest-officer in lieu thereof .

26. Acts prohibited in such forests.- (1) Any person who-

- (a) makes any fresh clearing prohibited by section 5, or
- (b) sets fire to a reserved forest, or in contravention, of any rules made by the State Government in this behalf, kindles any fire, or leave any fire burning, in such manner as to endanger such a forest; or who, in a reserved forest-
- (c) kindles, keeps or carries any fire except at such seasons as the Forest-officer may notify in this behalf :
- (d) trespasses or pastures cattle, or permits cattle to trespass
- (e) causes any damage by negligence in felling any tree or cutting or dragging any timber; fells, girdles, lops, or burns any tree or strips off the bark or leaves from, or otherwise damages, the same:
- (g) quarries stone, bums lime or charcoal, or collects, subjects to any manufacturing process, or removes, any forest-produce;
- (h) clears or breaks up any land for cultivation or any other purpose;
- (i) in contravention of any rules made in this behalf by the State Government hunts, shoots fishes, poisons water or sets traps or snares; or
- (j) in any area in which the Elephants' Preservation Act, 1879, (6 of 1879) is not in force, kills or catches elephants in contravention of any rules so made

shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both, in addition to such compensation for damage done to the forest as the convicting Court may direct to be paid.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prohibit-

- (a) any act done by permission in writing of the Forest-officer, or under any rule made by the State Government; or
- (b) the exercise of any right continued under clause (c) of sub-section (2) of section 15, or created by grant or contract in writing made by or on behalf of the Government, and

(3) Whenever fire is caused willfully or by gross negligence in reserved forest, the State Government may (notwithstanding that any penalty has been inflicted under this section) direct that in such forest or any portion thereof the exercise of all rights of pasture or to forest-produce shall be suspended for such period as it thinks fit.

WEST BENGAL AMMENDMENT

In section 26 of the principal act

(a) in the sub section (1), for the words " six months, or with the fine which may extend to five hundred rupees" the words " one year or fine which may extend to two thousand rupees, " shall be substituted;

(b) after sub section (1), following sub-section shall be inserted;

“(1-A) (a) The forest officer may evict from a reserve forest or from any land in a reserve forest any person who, in such forest trespass or pastures cattle, or permit cattle to trespass, or clears or breaks up such land for cultivation or for any other purpose, and may demolish any building erected or construction made by such person on such land.”

(b) Any agricultural or other crop grown, or any building erected or any construction made, by any person on any land in a reserved forest shall be liable to confiscation by an order of the Divisional Forest officer.

(C) The provisions of this section shall have effect notwithstanding any penalty inflicted under sub-section (1)

27. Power to declare forest no longer reserved .- (1) The State Government may by notification in the official Gazette, direct that, from a date fixed by such notification, any forest or any portion thereof reserved under the Act shall cease to be a reserved forest.

(2) From the date so fixed such forest or portion shall cease to be reserved; but the rights (if any) which have been extinguished therein shall not revive in consequence of such cessation.

CHAPTER III Of Village Forests

28. Formation of village-forests.- (1) The State Government may assign to any village-community the rights of Government to or over any land which has been constituted a reserved forest, and may cancel such assignment. All forests so assigned shall be called village-forests.

(2) The State Government may make rules for regulating the management of village forests, prescribing the conditions under which the community to which any such assignment is made may be provided with timber or other forest- produce or pasture, and their duties for the protection and improvement of such forest.

(3) All the provisions of this Act relating to reserved forests shall (so far as they are not inconsistent with the rules so made) apply to village-forests.

CHAPTER IV Of Protected Forests

29. Protected forests.- (1) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, declare the provisions of this Chapter applicable to any forest land or waste-land or waste-land which is not included in a reserved forest but which is the property of Government, or over which the Government has proprietary rights, or to the whole or any part of the forest-produce of which the Government is entitled.

(2) The forest-land and waste-lands comprised in any such notification shall be called a "protected forest".

(3) No such notification shall be made unless the nature and extent of the rights of Government and of private persons in or over the forest land or waste- land comprised therein have been inquired into and recorded at a survey or settlement, or in such other manner as the State Government thinks sufficient. Every such record shall be presumed to be correct until the contrary is proved;

Provided that, if, in the case of any forest-land or waste-land, the State Government thinks that such inquiry and record are necessary, but that they will occupy such length of time as in the meantime to endanger the rights of Government, the State Government may, pending such inquiry and record, declare such land to be a protected forest, but so as not to abridge or affect any existing rights of individuals or communities.

30. Power to issue notification reserving trees, etc.- The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette--

- (a) declare any trees or class of trees in a protected forest to be reserved from a date fixed by the notification;
- (b) declare that any portion of such forest specified in the notification shall be closed for such term, not exceeding thirty years, as the State Government thinks fit, and that the rights of private persons, if any, over such portion, shall be suspended during such terms, provided that the remainder of such forest be sufficient, and in a locality reasonably convenient, for the due exercise of the right suspended in the portion so closed; or

- (c) prohibit, from a date fixed as aforesaid, the quarrying of stone, or the burning of lime or charcoal, or the collection or subjection to any manufacturing process, or removal of, any forest produce in any such forest, and the breaking up or clearing for cultivation, for building, for herding cattle or for any other purpose, of any land in any such forest.

31. Publication of translation of such notification in neighbourhood.- The Collector shall cause a translation into the local vernacular of every notification issued under section 30 to be affixed in a conspicuous place in every town and village in the neighbourhood of the forest comprised in the notification.

32. Power to make rules for protected forests.- The State Government may make rules to regulate the following matters, namely: -

- (a) the cutting, sawing, conversion and removal of trees and timber, and the collection, manufacture and removal of forest-produce, from protected forests;
- (b) the granting of licences to the inhabitants of towns and villages in the vicinity of protected forests to take trees, timber or other forest- produce for their own use, and the production and return of such licences by such persons;
- (c) the granting of licences to persons felling or removing trees or timber or other forest-produce from such forests for the purposes of trade, and the production and return of such licences by such persons;
- (d) the payments, if any, to be made by the persons mentioned in clauses (b) and (c) for permission to cut such trees, or to collect and remove such timber or other forest-produce;
- (e) the other payments, if any, to be made by them in respect of such trees, timber and produce, and the places where such payment shall be made;
- (f) the examination of forest-produce passing out of such forests;
- (g) the clearing and breaking up of land for cultivation or other purposes in such forests;
- (h) the protection from fire of timber lying in such forests and of trees reserved under section 30;
- (i) the cutting of grass and pasturing of cattle in such forests;
- (j) hunting, shooting, fishing, poisoning water and setting traps or snares in such forests and the killing or catching of elephants in such forests in areas in which the Elephants' Preservation Act, 1879 (6 of 1879), is not in force,
- (k) the protection and management of my portion of a forest closed under section 30; and
- (l) the exercise of rights referred to in section 29.

33. Penalties for acts in contravention of notification under section 30 or of rules under section 32.- (1) Any person who commits any of the following offences, namely: -

- (a) fells, girdles, lops, taps or burns any tree reserved under section 30, or strips off the bark or leaves from or otherwise damages, my such tree;
- (b) contrary to any prohibition under section 30, quarries my stone, or burns any lime or charcoal or collects, subjects to any manufacturing process, or removes any forest-produce;
- (c) contrary to any prohibition under section 30, breaks up or clears for cultivation or any other purpose any land in my protected forest,
- (d) sets fire to such forest, or kindles a fire without taking all reasonable precautions to prevent its spreading to any tree reserved under section 30, whether standing, fallen or felled, or to any closed portion of such forest;
- (e) leaves burning any fire kindled by him to the vicinity of any such tree or closed portion;

- fells any tree or drags any timber so as to damage any tree reserved as aforesaid;
- (g) permits cattle to damage any such tree;
- (h) infringes any rule made under section 32.

shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

(2) Whenever fire is caused wilfully or by gross negligence in a protected forest, the State Government may, notwithstanding that any penalty has been inflicted under this section, direct that in such forest or any portion thereof the exercise of any right of pasture or to forest-produce shall be suspended for such period as it thinks fit.

WEST BENGAL AMMENDMENT

In section 26 of the principal act

(a) in the sub section (1), for the words “ six months, or with the fine which may extend to five hundred rupees” the words “ one year or fine which may extend to two thousand rupees, ” shall be substituted;

(b) after sub section (1), following sub-section shall be inserted;

“(1-A) (a) The forest officer may evict from a reserve forest or from any land in a reserve forest any person who, in such forest trespass or pastures cattle, or permit cattle to trespass, or clears or breaks up such land for cultivation or for any other purpose, and may demolish any building erected or construction made by such person on such land.”

(b) Any agricultural or other crop grown, or any building erected or any construction made, by any person on any land in a reserved forest shall be liable to confiscation by an order of the Divisional Forest officer.

(D) The provisions of this section shall have effect notwithstanding any penalty inflicted under sub-section (1)

Chapter shall be deemed to prohibit any act done with the permission in writing of the Forest-officer, or in accordance with rules made under section 32, or, except as regards any portion of a forest closed under section 33, in the exercise of any right recorded under section 29.

CHAPTER V

Of the Control over Forests and Lands and being the Property of Government

35. Protection of forests for special purposes.- (1) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, regulate or prohibit in any forest or waste land-

- (a) the breaking up or clearing of land for cultivation;
- (b) the pasturing of cattle; or
- (c) the firing or clearing of the vegetation, when such regulation or prohibition appears necessary for any of the following purposes:-
 - (i) for protection against storms, winds, rolling stones, floods and avalanches;
 - (ii) for the preservation of the solid one the ridges and slopes and in the valleys of hilly tracts, the prevention of landslips or of the formation of ravines and torrents or the protection of land against erosion, or the deposit thereon of sand, stones or gravel;
 - (iii) for the maintenance of a water-supply in springs, rivers and tanks;

- (iv) for the protection of roads, bridges, railways and other lines of communication;
- (v) for the preservation of the public health.

(2) The State Government may, for any such purpose, construct at its own expense, in or upon any forest or waste-land, such work as it thinks fit.

(3) No notification shall be made under sub-section (1) nor shall any work be begun under sub-section (2), until after the issue of a notice to the owner of such forest or land calling on him to show cause, within a reasonable period to be specified in such notice, why such notification should not be made or work constructed as the case may be, and until his objections, if any, and any evidence he may produce in support of the same, have been heard by an officer duly appointed in that behalf and have been considered by the State Government.

WEST BENGAL AMENDMENT

In section 63 of the Bengal Private Forest Act 1948(Act 14 of 1948) runs as follows

- (1) Sections 35, 36, 37 and 38 of the Indian Forest Act 1927 in their application to West Bengal are hereby repealed.
- (2) Such repeal shall not affect anything done or suffered of any obligation or liability accrued of any penalty incurred or any proceedings commenced before the commencement of this act.
- (3) Any private forest or wasteland held under the control of a Forest Officer under section 36 of Indian Forest Act,1927, immediately before commencement of this act shall, on such commencement notwithstanding the repeal of such section, continue to be held under the control of a Regional Forest Officer under the provisions of this act applicable to a vested forest shall deemed to be a vested forest for the purpose of this Act

(4) All such lands which immediately before the commencement of this Act were being managed as a reserved or protected forest under the provisions of Section 38 of the Indian Forest Act 1927, shall, on such commencement, notwithstanding the repeal of the said section, continue to be managed under the provisions of section 59 of this Act as a vested forest subject to such terms a may have been mutually agreed upon between the owner or the owners of the such lands and the collector, and the application made under sub-section (1) of the said section 38 by the owner or the owners of any such land shall be deemed to be an application made under the said section 59.”

36. Power to assume management of forests.-- (1) In case of neglect of, or willful disobedience to any regulation or prohibition under section 35, or if the purposes of any work to be constructed under that section so require, the State Government may, after notice in writing to the owner of such forest or land and after considering his objections, if any, place the same under the control of a Forest-officer, and may declare that all or any of the provisions of this Act relating to reserved forests shall apply to such forest or land.

(2) The net profits, it any, arising from the management of such forest or land shall be paid to the said owner.

*West Bengal : Section 36 of Indian Forest Act, 1927 is now repealed.
Vide West Bengal Act No 14 of 1948*

37. Expropriation of forests in certain cases.- (1) In any case under this Chapter in which the State Government considers that, in lieu of placing the forest or land under the control of a Forest Officer, the same should be acquired for public purposes, the State Government may proceed to acquire it in the manner provided by the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (1 of 1894).

CHAPTER VI

Of the duty on timber and other forest-produce

39. Power to impose duty on timber and other forest produce. -- (1) The Central Government may levy a duty in such manner, at such places and at such rates as it may declare by notification in the Official Gazette on all timber or other forest product--

(a) which is produced in the territories to which this Act extends and in respect of which the Government has any right;

(b) which is brought from any place outside the territories to which this Act extends.

(2) In every case in which such duty is directed to be levied ad valorem the Central Government may fix by like notification the value on which such duty shall be assessed.

(3) All duties on timber or other forest produce which, at the time when this Act comes into force in any territory, are levied therein under the authority of the State Government, shall be deemed to be and to have been duly levied under the provisions of this Act.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in this section, the State Government may, until provision to the contrary is made by Parliament continue to levy any duty which it was lawfully levying before the commencement of the Constitution; under this section as then in force;

Provided that nothing in this sub-section authorises the levy of any duty which as between timber or other forest-produce of the State and similar produce of the locality outside the State, discriminates in favour of the former, or which, in the case of timber or other forest-produce of one locality and similar timber or other forest produce of another locality.

40. Limit not to apply to purchase-money or royalty- Nothing in this Chapter shall be deemed to limit the amount, if any, chargeable as purchase- money or royalty on any timber or other forest-produce, although the same is levied on such timber or produce while in transit, in the same manner as duty is levied.

CHAPTER VII

Of the control of timber and other forest-produce in transit

41. Power to make rules to regulate transit of forest produce.-- (1) The control of all rivers and their banks as regards the floating of timber, as well as the control of all timber and other forest-produce in transit by land or water, as vested in the State Government, and it may make rules to regulate the transit of all timber and other forest-produce.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power such rules may-

- (a) prescribe the routes by which alone timber or other forest-produce may be imported, exported or moved into, from or within the State;
- (b) prohibit the import or export or moving of such timber or other produce without a pass from an officer duly authorised to issue the same, or otherwise than in accordance with the conditions of such pass;
- (c) provide for the issue, production and return of such passes and for the payment of fees therefor;
- (d) provide for the stoppage, reporting, examination and marking of timber or other forest-produce in transit, in respect of which there is reason to believe that any money is payable to the Government on account of the price thereof, or on account of any duty, fee, royalty or charge due thereon, or, to which it is desirable for the purposes of this Act to affix a mark;
- (e) provide for the establishment and regulation of depots to which such timber or other produce shall be taken by those in charge of it for examination, or for the payment of such money, or in, order that such marks may be affixed to it, and the conditions under which such timber or other produce shall be brought to, stored at and removed from such depots;
- (f) prohibit the closing up or obstructing of the channel or banks of any river used for the transit of timber or other forest-produce, and the throwing of grass brushwood, branches

- or leaves into any such river or any act which may cause such river to be closed or obstructed;
- (g) provide for the prevention or removal of any obstruction of the channel or banks of any such river, of timber or other forest-produce, and the throwing of grass, brushwood, branches or leaves into any such river or any act which may cause such river to be closed or obstructed;
 - (h) prohibit absolutely or subject to conditions, within specified local limits, the establishment of sawpits, the converting, cutting, burning, concealing or making of timber the altering or effacing of any marks on the same, or the possession or carrying of marking hammers or other implements used for marking timber;
 - (i) regulate the use of property marks for timber, and the registration of such marks; prescribe the time for which such registration shall hold good; limit the number of such marks that may be registered by any one person, and provide for the levy of fees for such registration.

(3) The State Government may direct that any rule made under this section shall not apply to any specified class of timber or other forest-produce or to any specified local area.

WEST BENGAL AMENDMENT

(i) In chapter VII of the principal act, for the heading, the following heading shall be substituted
" OF THE CONTROL OF TRADE, POSSESSION AND TRANSIT OF TIMBER AND OTHER FOREST-PRODUCE "

(vide West Bengal Act XXII of 1988, section 5)

(ii) In section 41 of the principal act –

(a) for sub-section (1), the following sub-section shall be substituted ;

“ (1) The control of all rivers and their banks as regards the floating of timber and other forest-produce, as well as the control of transit of all timber and other forest-produce by land or water and the control of trade and possession of timber and other forest-produce, is vested in the State Government, and it may make rules to regulate the transit of all timber and other forest-produce as well as the trade and possession of timber and other forest-produce.”

" (j) provided the regulation by licence or permit of trade and possession of timber and other forest-produce and levi of fees for such licence or permit.”

(vide West Bengal Act of 1988, Section 6)

41A. Powers of Central Government as to movements of timber across customs frontiers.- Notwithstanding anything in section 41, the Central Government may make rules to prescribe the route by which alone timber or other forest-produce may be imported, exported or moved into or from the territories to which this Act extends across any customs frontier as defined by the Central Government, and any rules made under section 41 shall have effect subject to the rules made under this section.

42. Penalty for breach of rules made under section 41.- (1) The State Government may by such rules prescribe as penalties for the contravention thereof imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or both.

(2) Such rules may provide that penalties which are double of those mentioned in sub-section (1) may be inflicted in cases where the offence is committed after sunset and before sunrise, or after preparation for resistance to lawful authority, or where the offender has been previously convicted of a like offence.

43. Government and Forest-officers not liable for damage to forest- produce at depot.-

The government shall not be responsible for any loss or damage which may occur in respect of any timber or other forest-produce while at a depot established under a rule made under section 41, or while detained elsewhere, for the purposes of this Act; and no Forest-officer shall be responsible for any such loss or damage, unless he causes such loss or damage negligently, maliciously or fraudulently.

44. All persons bound to aid in case of accidents at depot.- In case of any accident or emergency involving danger to any property at any such depot, every person employed at such depot, whether by the Government or by any private person, shall render assistance to any Forest-officer or Police-officer demanding his aid in averting such danger or securing such property from damage or loss.

CHAPTER VIII

Of the Collection of Drift and Stranded Timber

45. Certain kinds of timber to be deemed property of Government until title thereto proved, and may be collected accordingly. (1) All timber found adrift, beached, stranded or sunk-

All wood or timber bearing marks which have not been registered in accordance with the rule made under section 41, or on which the marks have been obliterated, altered or defaced by fire or otherwise; and in such areas as the State Government directs, all unmarked wood and timber, shall be deemed to be the property of Government, unless and until any person establishes his right and title thereto, as provided in this Chapter.

(2) Such timber may be collected by any Forest-officer or other person entitled to collect the same by virtue of any rule made under section,51 and may be brought to any depot which the Forest-officer may notify as a depot for the reception of drift timber.

(3) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, exempt any class of timber from the provisions of this section.

46. Notice to claimants of drift timber.- Public notice shall from time to time be given by the Forest officer, of timber collected under section 4,5. Such notice shall contain a description of the timber, and shall require any person claiming the same to present to such officer, within a period not less than two months from the date of such notice, a written statement of such claim.

47. Procedure on claim preferred to such timber.- (1) When any such statement is presented as aforesaid, the Forest-officer may, after making such inquiry as he thinks fit, either reject the claim after according his reasons for so doing, or deliver the timber to the claimant.

(2) If such timber is claimed by more than one person, the Forest-officer may either deliver the same to any of such persons who he deems entitled thereto, or may refer the claimants to the Civil Courts, and return the timber pending the receipt of an order from any such Court for its disposal .

(3) Any person whose claim has been rejected under this section may, within three months from the date of such rejection, institute a suit to recover possession of the timber claimed by him; but no person shall recover -any compensation or costs against the Government, or against any Forest-officer on account of such rejection, or the detention or removal of any timber, or the delivery thereof to any other person under this section.

(4) No such timber shall be subject to process of any Civil Criminal or Revenue Court until it has been delivered, or a suit has been brought, as provided in this section.

48. Disposal of unclaimed timber.- If no such statement is presented as aforesaid, or if the claimant omits to prefer his claim in the manner and within the period fixed by the notice issued under section 46, or on such claim having been so preferred by him and having been rejected, omits to institute a suit to recover possession of such timber within the further period fixed by section 47, the ownership of such timber shall vest in the Government, or, when such timber has been delivered to another person under section 47, in such other person free of all encumbrances not created by him.

49. Government and its officers not liable for damage to such timber.- The Government shall not be responsible for any loss or damage which may occur in respect of any timber collected under section 45, and no Forest-officer shall be responsible for any such loss or damage, unless he causes such loss or damage negligently, maliciously or fraudulently.

50. Payments to be made by claimant before timber is delivered to him.-No person shall be entitled to recover possession of any timber collected or delivered as aforesaid until he has paid to the Forest-officer or other person entitled to receive it such sum on account thereof as may be due under any rule made under section 51.

51. Power to make rules and prescribe penalties.- (1) The State Government may make rules to regulate the following matters, namely--

- (a) the salvaging collection and disposal of all timber mentioned in section 45;
- (b) the use and registration of boats used in salvaging and collecting timber;
- (c) the amounts to be paid on salvaging, collecting, moving, storing or disposing of such timber; and
- (d) the use and registration of hammers and other instruments to be used for marking such timber.

(2) The State Government may prescribe, as penalties for contravention of any rules made under this section, imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or both.

WEST BENGAL AMENDMENT

After Chapter VIII of the principal Act, the following chapter shall be inserted :-
